7- Eleven Retailer Offers Discounted Franchises to Retired Military

For those who have given so generously to their country by serving in the U.S. Armed Forces, 7-Eleven, Inc. wants to make it a little easier to reach the American dream of owning one's own business.

This July 2009, the convenience retailer is launching a new military veterans franchise program that offers discounted franchise fees to retired or separated veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces who have been honorably discharged from the service. Qualified veterans who become first-time 7-Eleven franchisees will receive a 10-percent discount on the initial franchise fee for the first 7-Eleven® store they franchise. This discount can range from $1,000 up to approximately $35,000, depending on the store.*

“This is the first time we have offered a reduction like this in our franchise fees, and I can't think of a better group to receive this benefit than the men and women who have so selflessly served to protect the freedoms we enjoy in America,” said 7-Eleven President and CEO Joe DePinto. A graduate of the Military Academy at West Point, DePinto served five years as an officer in the U.S. Army.

Retail locations available for franchising are available in 30 states across the U.S. An interactive map at www.franchise.7-eleven.com <<http://www.franchise.7-eleven.com/>> indicates stores available for franchising.

“The experiences and expertise gained in the military are ideal for succeeding as an independent businessperson,” said Jeff Schenck, senior vice president of national franchising and real estate. “A career in the military fosters leadership, a strong work ethic, teamwork and team-building, and teaches system management skills and how to effectively execute plans.”

Todd Ferguson, a 20-year veteran of 7-Eleven franchising who previously served with the 82nd Airborne of the U.S. Army, salutes the new program. “The 7-Eleven franchise business is perfect for people coming out of the military,” Ferguson said. “It's a 24-hour business and something is always happening. There's a real sense of mission in the store. Maintaining customer focus is not much different than the mission focus required in the military.”

Ferguson said he and his wife, Chinsuk, are franchising their “third - fifth store” in the Las Vegas area. “We have opened other new franchises and then sold them so this will mark the third time we're up to five stores. It gives us an opportunity to spread the American dream around.” The franchise couple just returned from Normandy, France, where they visited the American D-Day Memorial. 2009 marks the 65th anniversary of the tide-turning battle of World War II.

7-Eleven has military veterans serving in every level of the company from top management to field staff to store associates. With a growing number of veterans facing a difficult job market, veteran entrepreneurship offers an opportunity to start a successful business in which retired service personnel can use their skills to control their financial destiny.

Please refer to 7-Eleven's Franchise Disclosure Document for a complete description of the terms of the military veterans franchise program and the calculation of the initial franchise fee. An offer to sell a franchise can only be made upon delivery of a Franchise Disclosure Document.

To learn more about franchise seminar dates in the Richmond, Va. area, visit the 7-Eleven franchising Web site at <http://franchise.7-eleven.com/index.php/events> <<http://franchise.7-eleven.com/index.php/events>> , or contact Larry Draper at the Richmond regional office: 804-804-353-7875-x13 or larry.draper@7-11.com.

Notice of Job Opportunity

Chief, Network Technology Branch (NTB) GS-2210-15

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)
Information Technology Services Office (ITSO)

Salary Range: $ 116,364 – 151,275 per annum

Location: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Information Technology Services Office (ITSO), Network Technology Branch, Atlanta, Georgia

The CDC has an immediate need to fill the position of Chief, Network Technology Branch in the Information Technology Services Office. CDC's mission of promoting health and quality of life by preventing and controlling disease, injury and disability continues to be increasingly dependent on information technology (IT), electronic communications, and digital media. CDC's IT infrastructure provides the critical foundation which enables CDC to perform its critical mission functions of public health monitoring, research, communications, resource management, and public health services. Detecting health events and assessing health status trends in populations in a timely, comprehensive, reliable, and cost-effective manner is only possible through IT. Robust, secure and reliable IT infrastructure, office automation, and telecommunications are critical to the successful functioning of these public health systems.

Major Duties and Responsibilities: The selectee will be responsible for and oversees the research, development, implementation, support and evaluation for the agency's IT enterprise infrastructure in support of Metropolitan Area Networks (MAN) Management, Wide Area Network (WAN) and Local Area Network (LAN) Management, Video Conferencing Services, Directory Services, E-mail, Networking, and telecommunications support to include voice systems.. The position supervises a highly technical staff of information technology, networking, and communications specialists, and project managers.

As Branch Chief, the selectee will plan, direct, coordinate, and evaluate activities of the Network Technology Branch. Directly supervises lead technical staff and other supervisors in Branch. This includes planning, designing, and developing projects, assigning tasks, establishing priorities, monitoring progress, and evaluating performance of employees. Presents project plans, status, and future directions to ITSO Director, CDC Chief Information Officer (CIO), ITSO Senior Management staff, CDC C/I/O managers and staff and other CDC and DHHS committees and workgroups as appropriate. He/she will direct the development of CDC-wide IT policies, standards, and guidance in the network technology arena. Responsible for planning, developing, prioritizing, and defending the branch budget. Provides support services for all of the technologies mentioned above through staff and contracts. Develops methods and systems for the systematic monitoring of technology services to ensure reliability, availability and high performance. Monitors performance outcomes through system metrics and customer surveys/feedback to continuously improve products and services for CDC.

Qualification and education requirements: You must have at least one year of specialized experience equivalent to the next lower grade level of the normal line of progression of this position in the Federal government. Creditable experience, ability and knowledge includes in-depth experience in planning, managing, supervising technical, managerial, and administrative staff in all six (6) of the following disciplines: (1)local and wide area networks e.g. Cisco networking, Quality of Service (QOS), Multiprotocol Label Switching (MPLS), Border Gateway Protocol (BGP),Optical Carrier-12, Optical Carrier 192, Digital Signal 3, Internet Protocol Version 6 (IPV6), ; (2)telecommunications (including telephony) e.g. Voice Over Internet Protocol (VOIP), Time Division Multiplexing (TDM); (3)videoconferencing and video streaming; (4)directory services e.g.Microsoft Active Directory, (5)email e.g. Microsoft Exchange and Microsoft Identity Integration Server (Miis), and (6)systems integration.

Other Special Notes:

-Recruitment incentive or relocation incentive may be authorized.

Type of appointment: Persons with Schedule A hiring eligibility may be appointed to an Excepted Service appointment. Upon successful completion of this two-year appointment, the selectee will be converted to a full-time permanent appointment in the competitive service.

How to apply: If you are eligible for employment under a disability hiring mechanism (Schedule A or disabled veteran's appointment), submit your resume, Schedule A letter or other certification of disability, and transcripts (if applicable) to recruiter@cdc.gov. Additional information on Schedule A can be found at <http://www.opm.gov/disability/PeopleWithDisabilities.asp>.

Note: Applicants who do not claim a disability should apply at www.usajobs.gov.

ASSOCIATED BUILDERS AND CONTRACTORS CELEBRATES VETERANS DAY WITH LAUNCH OF VETERANSBUILDAMERICA.ORG

Website connects America's heroes with career opportunities in construction

Contact: Pete Mason, (703) 812-2069

For Immediate Release

Nov. 8, 2005

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) and Orion International, a leading military placement agency, today launched VeteransBuildAmerica.org, an interactive website that links U.S. veterans making the transition from the military sector to civilian life with construction contractors seeking hard-working, dedicated employees.

"At this time of year, we honor the selfless men and women who put their lives on the line to protect our nation," said Kirk Pickerel, ABC president and CEO. "This Veterans Day, ABC is proud to launch VeteransBuildAmerica.org. We realize that the transition from military life to civilian life can sometimes be difficult. It is our hope that VeteransBuildAmerica.org will help ease this transition by providing opportunities for veterans to begin a career in the U.S. construction industry."

The website, which will be managed by Orion, features a keyword search engine for job seekers that allows them to search for specific positions in certain geographic areas. Veterans can also browse through lists of available positions, or post their resumes for employers to review. ABC member firms seeking to hire veterans are allowed to post job notices on VeteransBuildAmerica.org, free of charge. Non-ABC members are charged a small fee to post notices.

"We've been working for more than 15 years to assist individual veterans in finding high-quality employment. Our online component is state-of-the-art in our industry, so we're honored to provide not only our expertise in military recruiting, but equally our technology to the VeteransBuildAmerica.org website," said Bill Laughlin, CEO of Orion International, Raleigh, N.C. "For our industry to work in conjunction with the construction industry to find civilian jobs for veterans approaches perfection: with the construction employee shortfall and the 250,000 military personnel transitioning out annually, these industry sectors need each other," added Laughlin.

"This partnership is a win-win for ABC and its 23,000 member firms," said Pickerel. "The Bureau of Labor Statistics estimates that the construction industry will need to hire 240,000 skilled craftworkers per year to keep pace with growth demands and replace workers who leave the industry, a serious concern as the baby boomer generation prepares to retire. Military professionals have a demonstrated ability to learn new skills and concepts, and can quickly integrate into construction jobs. Veterans have identifiable and transferable skills that have already been proven in real-world situations."

Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) is a national association representing 23,000 merit shop construction and construction-related firms in 79 chapters across the United States. For more news and information, visit ABC's website, www.abc.org.

NVR, Inc. operates in two business segments: homebuilding and mortgage banking. The homebuilding unit sells and constructs homes under the Ryan Homes, NVHomes and Fox Ridge Homes trade names. NVR Mortgage provides a variety of financing programs, while settlement and title services for buyers of NVR homes are provided by NVR Settlement Services.

Homebuilding

NVR homebuilding operations serve eighteen metropolitan areas in eleven states, including Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Ohio, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee.

Founded in 1948 to provide affordable housing in the growing economy after World War II, Ryan Homes has constructed almost 200,000 homes. Today, Ryan Homes offers housing styles to suit a wide range of consumers, from first-time homeowners to move-up buyers.

NVHomes has developed a well-earned reputation for constructing quality homes of lasting value. NVHomes offers outstanding designs and a host of architectural details and amenities to upscale homebuyers. Established in 1980, NVHomes operates primarily in the Washington, D.C. and Baltimore metropolitan areas.

Fox Ridge Homes, is the largest homebuilder in Nashville, Tennessee. Founded in 1961, Fox Ridge Homes primarily serves the first-time and first-time move-up markets in the Nashville area.

Mortgage Banking

NVR mortgage banking operates from sixteen branches in the metropolitan areas in which NVR has homebuilding operations. NVR Mortgage's primary focus is to serve NVR homebuyers.

NVR Settlement Services, with headquarters in Reston, VA, provides a full range of settlement and title services in areas served by NVR's homebuilding operations
